

White 1-Gang Blank Wall Plate Cover with Mounting Screws

Structured Cabling / Wall Plates

KONGIA US 1-gang blank plate for closing recessed or surface boxes that do not require an active outlet. Its solid front protects the interior against dust and accidental contact, preserves spare cabling and allows the point to be reopened when the network expands.

Applications

Network Expansion Reserve

Closes a box prepared with spare cable until the project requires an RJ45 jack, fiber adapter or other low-voltage service.

Renovations and Work in Progress

Prevents dust, paint and debris from entering an installed telecommunications box while furnishings or system termination are completed.

Temporarily Disabled Points

Maintains a uniform appearance when an outlet is removed for space reconfiguration, user changes or scheduled maintenance.

Offices, Shops, Homes and Classrooms

Covers unused boxes with a discreet white surface that is easy to clean and consistent with US 1-gang plates.
